

SEMAS Soroban Maths

PAMA - Hong Kong Newsletter 1

14th PAMA International Competition, Hong Kong 2013

On the 28th of December 2013, the excitement could be felt in the air as our 21 "Proudly" South African Ambassadors arrived in Hong Kong to compete in the 14th Annual PAMA championships against many other international candidates representing their own countries.

Our 22 South African Ambassadors

SEMAS & PAMA DELEGATES:

Marlene Mouton, SEMAS Tracy Hauptfleisch and Hantie van Niekerk

CONTESTANTS:

Hanno Neill Geyser, Daniele Amy Hauptfleisch, Lesedi Tsitsi, Shani Jansen van Rensburg, Jaylyn Bhula, Stuart Camden Camp, Irene Geyser, Zander Jansen van Rensburg, Michaela Despina Kapnias, Ethan Matthew Kirstein, Jacob Albertus Marais, Lloyd John, Milligan, Kamilah Hope Moodley, Liam Odendaal, Eben Pienaar, Kevalin Pillay, Sarah Rebella Varghese, Kemuel Joshua Moodley, Maria Anna Varghese, Marisca Stander, Hendrik Jacobus Van Der Mescht

SEMAS Soroban Maths

PAMA - Hong Kong Newsletter 2

The PAMA Competition Hall in Hong Kong Kowloon Bay

Indonesia - Chen Kit Fong,

U.S.A. - Chen Jin Hwei,

South Africa - Marlene Mouton,

Thailand - Somsak Pornpisuttivorakul, Hong Kong - Ammon Ng, Taiwan , R.O.C. - Liao Cheng Hui, Malaysia - Ronnie Chong, Canada - TennyHo, India - Pushpanathan. P, Vietnam - Nguyen Ngoc Trung , Singapore - Phyllis Wong, Korea - Soon-jip Kim , Turkey - Rumeysa Kot

The 13 Respective PAMA Chair Representatives were seated as the festivities commenced, Our very own Mrs Marlene Mouton (Ras) seated second from the left represented South Africa for the 5th consecutive year.

Young dancers from one of Hong Kong's multi-award winning dance academies thrill the audience with dance & colour. These young children have performed for audiences across the world & they are national champions in their category in Hong Kong.

